

Cloud number three

Music: Chris Nagl
Text: Irini-Rene at

You shouldn't waste a minute of life on talking 'bout nonsense or things you dislike.

Relax, - find the magic key, - come and watch the sunrise with me.
Say 'hallo' to a child, or pat a dog,
smile at a stranger, guide a frog.
Smell a rose and gaze at the moon – these things are for free and soon

you can live your life easily,
come and join me on cloud number three.

If you wanna live easily,
come and join me on cloud number three...
Cloud number three – cloud number three

Happiness looks like the colours of sunflowers tastes like sweet ice cream is like the wide open sky....

If you wanna live easily,
come and join me on cloud number three
