

One lucky moment

Musik: Helmut Nagl

Text : Irini-Rene at

Feel it comes over you like the clear mountain air See it comes over you high spirits flying from somewhere

Isn't it a mystery
this magic moment fills your heart, your soul and it fills your eyes with tears one lucky moment - against all your fears

A sound is coming from far only few words but true a voice so soft and so sweet out of the blue

Isn't it a mystery
this magic moment fills your heart, your soul
and it fills your eyes with tears
one lucky moment - against all your fears

Your work of art is an everlasting beauty it will stay forever when all of us are gone, - are gone -

Isn't it a mystery
this magic moment fills your heart, your soul
and it fills your eyes with tears
against all my fears....
