

Sunshine in your paradise

Musik: Chris
Tex: Irini-Rene-at

Living all alone living for your own – it doesn't matter surfing all around but you never found what you're looking for – can't stand it anymore so you open wide an inner door suddenly there is a light makes it clear and shining bright now you know what you've missed first of all on your list – you can't believe but it's true a magic moment made for you this smile – like painted in the sky – you feel –

You feel you fall into a smile
sunshine in your paradise
it is like sunshine in your paradise you are sunshine in your paradise....

Living on an island built by yourself – so far away your little paradise is an island far away from reality your peaceful island phantasy a better place you've never seen you built it in your phantasy for nobody but you and me
for nobody but you for nobody but for me.

I feel I fall into a smile sunshine in my paradise it is like sunshine in my paradise you are like sunshine in my paradise you are sunshine in my paradise.
