

YOU SMILE AT ME

(It comes from time to time)

It comes from time to time
and it's the same like somebody ate up the last piece of my birthday-cake I don't know what to do - I know I can't get through without a helping hand from the other side and in my hesitation
comes a flash of inspiration a small move to a new direction
and in my hesitation
comes a flash of inspiration
a small move into the right direction.....

You smile at me in a lovely way you there in white and in blue I know it needs no word to say my secret wishes come true,
my secret wishes come true.

The sky is dark - no sun can feel the rain before it comes all has changed - I'm a prisoner in my own confusion
I don't know what to do
I know I can't get through
without a helping hand from the other side
and in my hesitation
comes a flash of inspiration
a small move to a new direction
and in my hesitation
comes a flash of inspiration
a small move into the right direction.....

You smile at me in a lovely way
you there in white and in blue
I know it needs no word to say
my secret wishes come true,
my secret wishes come true...
